ply to Upington's Suit.

sational Trial To-Day.

The trial of the suit of George P. Upington against John Keenan, once the Bismarck of he County Democracy, was resumed to-day before Justice Lawrence in Part III, of the Court. Upington claims that bemoneys to Keenan to the aggregate of $43,000: that he was led to expect to get ney back through " fat snaps," political jous, &c., but that he never got a cent, rectly or indirectly. He explains his failure to bring this suit earlier by the fact that at the time of the in-1884 and those charged with bribing the great boodle combine, the great County Decracy leader had thought best to decamp to Canada, where he stayed till the bitzzard of public disapproval had blown over. Mr. Keenan returned to the scene of his former greatness a year ago, and the indictments against him were dismissed.

On the witness-stand Mr. Upington testifled that ex-Commissioner of Jurors George Caulfield acted as go-between for him and Keenan. Cautheld is Upington's uncle, and no writings were ever exchanged by Uping-

PROTECTION FOR HOME MUSIC. Hearing on a Proposed Bill to Keep Out Foreign Bands.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The Senate and House Committee on Immigration, in joint ession to-day, gave a short hearing to Mr. Walsieffer, of Philadelphia, representing the International League of Musicians, and Mr. gregation. At the last regular election a new Hunt, of New York, in favor of the bill intro-Hunt, of New York, in favor of the bill intro-duced Mr. Cummings prohibiting the impor-tation of bands, orchestras and musical organizations under contract.

They favored the bill because it proposed to prevent orchestras and such bands as Strauss's from coming over to this country and playing under contract in competition with home orchestras, when in many in-stances deprived the latter of engagements.
